

Here are the questions from [6.6 Sigma-point methods - Quiz]

1. True or False:

The idea behind these methods is to approximate the moments (e.g., mean and covariance) of a random Gaussian vector transformed through our nonlinear models directly rather than focus on approximating the non-linear models themselves?

Optional Answers:

1. true
2. false

Thank You